```
layer = MM(in, w):
layer = MM(in, w);
                                  layer = MM(in, w);
                                                                split
                                                                                                                   reorder
                          fuse
                                                                        rsSum = ReduceScatter(layer);
sum = AllReduce(layer);
                                 → sum = AllReduce(layer);
                                                                        agSum = AllGather(rsSum);
d = Dropout(sum+b);
                                  fuseOut = Dropout(sum+b)+r;
                                                                        fuseOut = Dropout(agSum+b)+r;
out = d + r:
laver = MM(in. w):
                                            layer = MM(in, w);
                                                                                          laver = MM(in, w);
fuseAR = FusedAllReduce(layer);
                                   overlap fusedAR = FusedAllReduce(layer);
                                                                                 fuseComm
                                                                                          rsSum = ReduceScatter(layer);
scOut = Dropout(fuseAR+b)+Slice(r); ← scOut = Dropout(fusedAR+b)+Slice(r);
                                                                                          scOut = Dropout(rsSum+b)+Slice(r);
fuseOut = fuseAR.comp(scOut);
                                            out = fuseAR.comp(scOut)
                                                                                          agOut = AllGather(scOut):
out = Overlap(layer, fuseOut);
```